In the morning you will be picked-up at your hotel by our driver and guide. From your hotel we drive to the south of Kathmandu in the direction of Lalitpur, Patan. South of Patan we drive for approximately 14 kilometres till we reach Godawari, home to the famous botanical gardens. From Godawari we start our hiking tour. Godawari is a popular picknick place for the Nepali, so we may see some picknick going on. Our track leads us gradually uphill through thick forest for about four hours. Depending on how clear the sky is, you may have a magnificent view from eastern part of Annapurna range to Gaurishanker in the east. Also worth the view is looking down on Kathmandu Valley. At this magical spot we will enjoy our packed lunch. After lunch and moving around for sometime, we hike down following the same trail to Godawari for about 2 hours and drive back to Kathmandu.

Phulchowki (2782m) is the highest hill situated in the south of Kathmandu valley. This is one of the most beautiful hiking in terms of vegetation in Kathmandu valley.
